Skimming The World.

T. P. O'Connor writes in the Sunday Times :- One of the pleapantest visits I ever made even in America was to the country house of my friend Clarence W. Barron. Clarence is the owner of a long 8 string of financial papers—the best known of which is the Wall Street | Journal: he has also a telegraphic agency; and he is the chief proprietor of a series of "tickers" which supply the Stock Exchanges with news. He is the most active man, physically and mentally, in the world. When he has undergone his annual cure at Battle Creek-America's great health resort—and has shed some of his figure, he still remains about eighteen to twenty stones in weight. But he skips all over the world as if he were the winged Ariel; he hears that there is something worth hearing in Germany; off he goes to a dozen towns in Germany. Next he is told there is an interesting situation in Palestino; he is within a few days in Jerusalem; and London is to him suburb of Boston, which he can visit almost in a week-end.

WATER SUPPLY PROBLEM ACUTE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Amor, January 31. Ratepayor's meeting ! This chanco of ventilating local grievances was accorded us yesterday. The electric ight Co. of Shanghai, which has tried to supply this little island of Julangsu with light for 11 years, was last night rebaptised the Electric Twilight Co., and never was any concern so heavily criticised. A committee of three was appointed to find means to remedy the present state of affairs.

On the fourth inst. we are sending to Swatow about fourteen of our young, hopeful men, to represent this uncient community in matches of all sorts. Although the majority of us are not very optimistic with regard to the laurels our team may obtain from the matches, still we nourish a hope, that in the farewell dinner at Swatow our team may keep up the traditions of our port as good "Chairmen," hard to floor.

We are not fired at so often now when crossing the harbour at night, which seems to indicate shortness of ammunition among the local troops, who really seem to pay more attention to junks louded with firewood and to sampans with poor Singapore passengers con board collecting taxes from them with the assistance of bayonets."

B.M.C. detectives effected the captures and the men are stated to have made a sensational

He was pointed out to them, they say, and under the pretext of taking him to see his daughter, they took him behind the British Barracks, and stabbed him with a knife. The knife, one used for killing pigs, was found by the police in the house of one of the pri-
